

Our nation is at war with groups that have no qualms about destroying over very way of life. There is no substitute for being prepared to defend this great country against them in every way possible. That includes having EVERY means of communications available at the ready, that should one method fail, another is immediately available. The elimination of the 5 WPM Morse Code requirement further reduces our ability to respond in a national emergency. Keep the code requirement as it already exists.